Healing the Soul Training School
mkclairvoyants@gmail.com

Introduction

Thank you for requesting information on the courses that we offer through Healing the Soul Training, either in person, via workshops or online. You can see some of the workshops we offer at the end of this booklet or at our website mkclairvoyants.com.

As professional teachers, healer trainers, Hypnotherapists, Reiki Teachers, Therapists, and self-employed business owners, we have worked hard to deliver a service that is aimed at you and making you move forward on your spiritual path.

Over the years, we have studied hard, gaining qualifications, gaining professional accreditations and working across the U.K. and Europe, working in the different parts of our Spiritual businesses and building up a reputation for quality of delivery and passion for all we do.

This learning and delivery of services covers over 10 years and more in some cases, and hopefully shows you that we don't want to just give the bare minimum in our passion, our commitment or in the knowledge and experience we have to offer.

We have done this as we are passionate about working for Spirit but also want to be knowledgeable and confident in all areas of what we deliver, we teach or in the professionalism we wish to express either through Healing the Soul Training or its parent organisation MK Clairvoyants.

We now invite you to join us to share in that experience and to learn from ourselves. We hope you enjoy the variety of topics on offer and should you wish to know more please contact us
